Work/Study Meeting Attendance

John Camarata – Mayor
Lou Whitford - Councilmember
Rich Coleman – Councilmember
Holly Beard-Councilmember
Richard Hink Jr. – Councilmember
Peter Schuetz - Councilmember
Debbie Lee – Clerk/Treasurer

Points of Discussion

- Councilmember Beard would like to see the branding carried out thru-out the City. She likes Johnny’s wall and the welcome sign. She thinks that it would help with the City being cohesive. Councilmember Beard would like to see the logo on the City website. The train logo in City Hall should be changed out to have the City Logo.
- Councilmember Coleman questioned letterhead, decals etc. It was explained that police, municipal and tourism are all different logos.
- Councilmember Whitford would like to see the planters moved to Main Street this would make it easier for watering and maintaining.
- Councilmember Beard would like to see possibly adopting the planters again would be better.
- Councilmember Coleman thought people should be able to plant what they like, it was discussed that all uniform plants/flowers would be a better look.
- Councilmember Hink thought maybe looking at flowers that would be pollinator friendly.
- Councilmember Whitford thought you could place small Christmas trees in the center of the planters with lights attached to them.

- Councilmember Hink suggested putting a PVC pipe in the middle and then just slipping in the American flags and City Banners in the center for certain holidays.
- Discussion was had about maybe getting some solar lights.
- Discussion was had regarding the Paid Family Medical Leave that has been implemented from Employment Security and to withhold from the employee or have the City of Kittitas pay the employee amount. Currently union members are not subject to this as they are under a current contract.
- Study Session closed at 6:44 p.m.
