- The Eastern Washington Hearings Board disagreed with Jones & Stokes, the consulting firm hired by the county to review and determine our correct UGA.
- Councilmember Gilmour suggested taking out the area to the east of Exit 115 Mini Mart and north to Park Creek.
- Councilmember Huber would like to see a breakdown from the EWHB on how their decision was calculated.
- Jerry Litt, our planner, believes the City of Kittitas has a strong case. It is similar to a case in Arlington where the Supreme Court agreed with Arlington.
